

Organizers:

Academic Partners:

INSTITUTUL DE PROGNOZĂ ECONOMICĂ

CALL FOR PAPERS

The 11th Edition of International Conference

The Future of Europe

— 30 October 2020 —

Abstracts due by: September 15th, 2020 • Abstract acceptance notification due by: September 20th, 2020 • Papers due by: October 20th, 2020

The Faculty of International Business and Economics of the Bucharest University of Economic Studies is organizing the 11th edition of The Future of Europe International Conference.

Against the background of developments within the European Union, the conference aims at bringing together scholars from all over the world to present papers and debate ideas in a wide range of thematic areas, covering: a) economic issues: general theory and policy, from both interdisciplinary and core epistemological areas; qualitative and quantitative methodology and modelling, with particular emphasis on EU business, money and banking, financial markets, business cycles and economic crises, business and government ethics, public and private regulatory frameworks; b) multiculturalism and diversity across European Union, with particular emphasis on business communication and negotiation, leadership, organizational culture, migration issues, gender economics.

To accommodate such a variety of topics, the conference is organized around the following panels, described on the conference site (http://www.rei.cercetare.ase.ro/FoE_Conference/index.html):

★ The new challenges of European Union governance ★ Business across Europe ★ Addressing Corporate Social Responsibility and Risk Management in Europe ★ Finance and banking in the European Union ★ Survival of the European Union ★ Family as Economic Resource in the European Union ★ Diasporas, Home and Hybridity ★ Economic aspects of COVID - 19 medical crisis ★

New section proposals can also be submitted to the organizing committee. Ph.D. candidates are welcome and strongly encouraged to submit valuable academic papers. Official language of the conference is English.

The submitted abstracts and papers will undergo a double blind peer review process. The accepted articles will be published in the conference proceedings as working papers. A selection of the presented papers will be published by the prestigious internationally indexed journals associated with the conference:

Romanian Journal of Economic Forecasting, Journal of Economic Computation and Economic Cybernetics Studies and Research, Romanian Journal of European Affairs, Economica, The Journal of Philosophical Economics, Economics & Sociology Journal, The European Journal of Interdisciplinary Studies, The Romanian Economic Journal, Synergy, Journal of Financial and Monetary Economics, Management & Marketing. Challenges for the Knowledge Society.

Fees* (per paper)	Presenters	PhD students	Participants
Early bird	30 EUR	20 EUR	Free
Late registration	40 EUR	25 EUR	Free

* Fees include conference materials and CD, coffee breaks and closing dinner.

 Members of the Research Centre in International Business and Economics and the Research Centre in Literature and Linguistics Applied to Languages for Special Purpose "Teodora Cristea" will benefit from a special fee of 25 EUR.

 PhD students of the Economics and International Affairs Doctoral School may benefit from special discounts awarded on merit.

For other important dates and details concerning the conference venue, accommodation and Bucharest sightseeing options, check the conference website which will be regularly updated with new information.

http://www.rei.cercetare.ase.ro/FoE_Conference/index.html